Tokyo Newspaper Declares Allies Are Insisting on Activity in War.

Tokio, Oct. 12.—The ailies are insisting on Japan's participation in the war with men and fighting ships, according to the military writer of the newspaper Nichi Nichi today.

The American embargo on steel, he asserted, was adopted for the specific purpose of backing up the allied demand for Japanese troops and greater Japanese naval participation.

The writer declared that after the fall of Riga the entente allies asked that Japan send an expedition to Europe. In reply Japan explained that mobilization was impracticable.

The writer expressed the belief that the allies' demand would become more Tokio, Oct. 12.-The allies are in-
